We wish to advise the Exchange and the investing public regarding information/comments appearing in social media which might be construed as implying that Semirara Mining and Power Corporation's operation has been suspended by the DENR. We wish to clarify that the company continues to operate and has not been suspended and neither has it been issued any suspension order nor is there any ongoing mining audit or re-audit.

We reiterate that the DENR Environmental Audit conducted in August 2016 cleared the company as compliant with its Environmental Compliance Certificate disclosed to the Exchange on September 19, 2016.

We also reiterate that the Company's operation is under the jurisdiction of the Department of Energy. Moreover, DOE issued on August 26, 2016 the results of its technical audit confirming that the company's operation does not discharge toxic materials to the mangroves, sulfur content of coal is below 1%, no seaweed farm affected and dumping of overburden materials do not affect nearby communities. This was disclosed to the Exchange on September 22, 2016.
